SEX, DRAG AND ROCK 'N' ROLL. It's the most fun you can have in fishnets! A cult classic for more than forty years, this brilliant pastiche of B-movie horror and sci-fi tropes, with its irresistible rock-and-roll score, invites us to shed our inhibitions and explore our wildest dreams and desires. Come ready for a great time – dress up if you dare! Rubber gloves, glow sticks and show-themed paraphernalia welcome. But thanks for leaving your water guns, rice, toast and other projectiles at home. Parent permission form must be signed for students to view this show

The Tempest

Director Antoni Cimolino

FORGIVE AND BE FREE. In Shakespeare's great drama of loss and reconciliation, a long-deposed ruler uses magical arts to bring within her power the enemies who robbed her of her throne and marooned her on a remote island. But what revenge does she mean to take? Notice this version has a female Prospero! Martha Henry plays Prospero...and she is phenomenal actress!

Long Day's Journey Into Night

by Eugene O'Neill

Director Miles Potter

HOME IS WHERE THE HEART ACHES. In this searing cry from the heart, one of the 20th century's greatest playwrights paints a haunting portrait of his own emotionally damaged family as they struggle – under crushing burdens of guilt, resentment and dread – to maintain the unifying bonds of love.

The Music Man

Book, music and lyrics by Meredith Willson

Story by Meredith Willson and Franklin Lacey

Director and Choreographer Donna Feore

A LOVE STORY WITH TWISTS. AND TUNES. A charming but fraudulent salesman arrives in River City to work his usual scam – only to find that a bill of goods can be the real deal. With melodies that include the rousing “Seventy-Six Trombones,” this musical-comedy classic will delight the whole family.
